I. COURSE DESCRIPTION 課程簡介

A survey of the history of Christianity from the time of the Reformation through the 20th century. It explores the main currents in spirituality, theology, missions, worship, organization, and their interaction with society.

Through the reading of primary documents from different traditions, students are challenged to broaden their understanding of the Christian faith. The experiences of the church facing the cultural changes of the past centuries will help the student wrestle with the issues of our postmodern society.

Recommended: HIST CM12

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES 課程目的

At the end of the course, students should be able to:

1. Become familiar with the general shape of development of Christianity from the Reformation era through the twentieth century.
2. Discern major social, cultural and political issues which have influenced the formation of traditions of the Christian church.
3. Analyze some of the most significant figures and theological problems in the Church in history.
4. Wrestle with the complexities of faith in today's world from the experience of the forebears in the past.

III. COURSE REQUIREMENTS 課程要求

A. REQUIRED READING 必讀課本

Bruce L. Shelley. Church History in Plain Language. Dallas: Word Publishing, 1982
(Chinese Translation)

布魯斯雪萊著，劉平譯，《基督教會史》，北京大學出版社，2008

Lam, Wing-hung. Christian Theology in Development, Vol. 3: The Reformation Church (Hong Kong: China Alliance Press, 2009)

C. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING 作業及評核

1. Required Reading and Class Participation: (10% of final grade)

Read the required textbooks. Report your reading during the last class of the course.

2. A Term Paper: (42% of final grade)

Write a research paper on a topic of your choice which deals with a theological issue, a church movement or a formative figure of the Christian Church. The length of the paper should be about 15 – 20 pages. Indicate your Tyndale “campus mailbox number” on the cover page of your paper.

Due Date: March 26, 2018 in class (Monday)

3. A Final Exam: (48% of final grade)

Write a three – hour exam, based on the materials covered in the lectures and the required textbooks. The examination will be scheduled during the Exam Week.

Date: April 16, 2018 (Monday)

D. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK 呈交作業的一般性準則

1. Your work should demonstrate the following characteristics:

The term paper should indicate an adequate amount of research work in the area of your topic. It should demonstrate sufficient bibliographical control of the material, thoughtful reflection and careful analysis. A good paper is one that will make a contribution to the existing knowledge of the field of study.

2. Matter of Style

It is expected that written work will be submitted in a clear, straight – forward style of academic prose (cf. the guidelines in Strunk and White, Elements of Style). Written work ought to betray a clear organization, argument and coherent thought.

3. Plagiarism and Honesty

In all work, you are obliged to pay careful attention to matters of intellectual property, honesty and integrity. Plagiarism is to be avoided at all costs and will not be tolerated in any form whatsoever.

4. Title Page and Documentation

The title page for all written work ought to include the following:

The title of the paper, name of the course, name of the professor, date of the submission, and your name (if you have a Tyndale Campus mailbox, this should also appear on the title page).

For proper citation style, consult the Chicago-Style Quick Guide (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.46 to 10.51 and 14.253 to 14.254.

Do not submit papers in any type of binder or cover: a staple in the top left corner of the paper is sufficient.

5. Late Assignments

All written work will be submitted on or before the due date. Should this not occur, Tyndale policy with respect to grading penalties will be applied to the late submission of written work.

6. Criteria for the Evaluation of Written Work

Evaluation will be based on the following: Bibliographical control, lucidity of thought, balance in structure, clarity in writing and soundness of argument.

7. Submission of Written Work

Students are required to retain a copy of all assignment (hard copy or electronic version).

If a student wishes to submit written work by mail, they must be mailed directly to the Professor. If a student does not have a Tyndale Campus mailbox and wishes to have all written work returned to them, they must submit assignments with a stamped self-addressed envelope

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism. Tyndale University College & Seminary takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students should consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System. The Academic Calendar is posted at <http://tyndale.ca/registrar>.

學生有須詳讀學科日曆，明瞭學術誠信，性別區分之用詞，恰當適用於學術性文章，延期或遲交的作業，學科的評分及作業的交還皆須預知遵守。有關學科日曆在網上可查詢。

E. SUMMARY OF ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING 課程分數總結

Evaluation is based upon the completion of the following assignments

Required Reading & Class Participation	10%
Term Paper	42%
Final Exam	48%
Total 總分	100%

F. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student's learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.
