EVALUATION & ASSIGNMENTS 作業及評核
1. Assigned Reading Tests (4 x 10%, total = 40%). Students are expected to read the assigned sections of the textbook prior to each class according to the Course Schedule (Section VI. below), and will be quizzed on their reading at the beginning of each class beginning Apr 11.

2. Term paper (50%). Students are to choose from one of the NT books and write a detail analysis to demonstrate the thesis and the argument of the writer. Further instruction will be provided at the beginning of the course. Approx. 4,000 words.

3. Class participation (10%).

COURSE & INSTRUCTOR POLICIES

ATTENDANCE

Faithful attendance at classes is an important indicator of student maturity and involvement. Class attendance and participation are part of the evaluation of the student and may have a bearing on the final grade for the course.

When a student misses a significant number of classes because of illness, he or she should notify the Dean of Student Life in person or by phone. The student will need to submit a doctor’s certificate upon return. The Dean of Student Life will notify the student’s professors of the reason for the absence and suggest that they take this reason into consideration when grading assignments.

The University College faculty have adopted the following guidelines to define student responsibilities in this matter and to assist the student in developing a disciplined life:

Attendance Policy for Fall and Winter Courses:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Absence from once-per-week courses</th>
<th>1 or 2 absences: Absence from class for any reason (including illness) is permitted twice without penalty.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3 or 4 absences:</td>
<td>Students with three or four absences without legitimate reason will lose one grade level from their total course grade. Legitimate absences include personal illness or injury or death in the immediate family. Students are responsible to report to the instructor the reason for all absences.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5 absences or more:</td>
<td>Absenteeism for any reason that exceeds four absences will automatically mean the student has chosen not to complete the course and a grade of “F” will be assigned. Students who are absent because of extended illness or injury verified by a doctor’s certificate are eligible to apply through the Academic Standards Committee for permission to complete the subject. If excessive absenteeism due to illness or injury extends into the following semester, the student must have a reduced load in the following semester.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The above policy should be considered as being in effect unless the instructor indicates otherwise at the beginning of the semester. Instructors have the prerogative of instituting their own attendance policies for individual courses.

COURSEWORK

Submitting Assignments & Late Policy

Assignments
Major assignments will be specified at the beginning of a semester in the course syllabus, so that students can organize their time effectively. All essays and other written assignments shall be written at the university level as far as grammar, style and structure are concerned. When this is not the case, instructors shall:

1. Comment in writing on the deficient parts of the essay or other written assignment;
2. Recommend that the student get help from the Centre for Academic Excellence; and
3. Lower the grade in proportion to the seriousness of the deficiency.

Research papers for University College courses should conform to the style requested by the professor. A summary of the three standard forms is found on The Centre for Academic Excellence webpage: www.tyndale.ca/academic-excellence.

Students are required to keep backup copies of all assignments submitted.
Electronic Submission
1. For courses where electronic submission of assignments is required, it is the responsibility of the student to ensure that the instructor has received the assignment by the established due date and to ensure that the assignment submitted is the complete and correct version.
2. Any student may be requested to submit papers in electronic form to facilitate the professor’s routine checks for academic fraud.

Late Assignments
Assignments should be submitted on the due date in order to receive full credit. The penalty for unexcused late assignments will be determined by the following scale:

1. For each day or part thereof late, the instructor will reduce the assigned grade by one-third of a letter; e.g., “A” to “A-,” “B+” to “B.” Saturdays, Sundays and holidays are excluded from the reckoning.
2. The above policy should be considered as being in effect unless the instructor indicates otherwise at the beginning of the semester in the syllabus. Instructors have the prerogative of implementing their own late assignment policies for individual courses.
3. Excessively late assignments may receive no credit and result in failure. In some subjects, no late assignments will be accepted for credit, and this will be communicated to the students at the beginning of the course.

Extensions on Assignments
No instructor may grant extensions on any assignments, nor accept assignments after the final day of exams in the fall or winter semesters. Students requiring extension must follow the procedures outlined below.
Penalties for late assignments and attendance expectations will be stipulated in each course syllabus. The following procedure will be followed for students requesting extensions:
1. If a student is not able to complete all assignments within a course by the last day of exams, the student may appeal to the Registrar for an extension. Such an appeal should be made in writing using a form available from the Office of the Registrar or online at www.tyndale.ca/registrar/forms.
2. Extensions will be granted by the Registrar only in cases where the student was clearly prevented from completing the assignments by circumstances beyond his or her control (e.g., hospitalization, illness documented by a note from a doctor, etc.). Extensions are not granted for what best could be described as “poor time management” or “over involvement” in an extracurricular activity.
3. If a student is unsure if he or she has a valid reason to appeal, the student may wish to discuss the matter with the Registrar.
4. If an extension or grade of “incomplete” is granted by the Registrar, all work for the course will be due with a new deadline. Once an “incomplete” is granted, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor and make satisfactory arrangements to complete the outstanding work.
5. Failure to submit assignments by the deadline will result in failing grades (a grade of “F”) on those assignments, and the final grades on courses will be calculated accordingly.

The decision of the Registrar may be appealed in writing to the Academic Standards Committee. The Academic Standards Committee will respond in writing to the student and provide a copy of the decision to the various parties. The decision of the Academic Standards Committee is final.
FINAL EXAMS
All final exams will take place during the exam period as scheduled by the Registrar. Students are responsible for noting the date, time and location of their final exam. Students are also responsible for familiarizing themselves with the Registrar’s Policies on taking final exams.

Final Examination Policy

Final Examinations
Final examinations will be held during the times stated in the Academic Calendar. The Registrar will determine the time and place of these examinations.

The following rules apply to every final examination:
1. No student is permitted to take into the examination room any materials relating to the examination subject, including Bibles, unless otherwise indicated.
2. No student may leave the room without permission from the exam proctor.
3. No student may leave his or her seat during the final fifteen minutes.
4. Students must not linger in the halls outside the examination rooms while examinations are being written.
5. No student will be permitted to write beyond the allotted time without special permission of the Registrar.

Exam Conflicts and Rescheduling
1. The only circumstances that will allow the rescheduling of an exam are as follows:
   a. Exam Conflict: two exams at the same time or three exams within 24 hours.
   b. Illness: a doctor’s note is required if a student misses an exam due to illness.
2. To reschedule an exam, a student must submit an Exam Reschedule Form to the Office of the Registrar by the deadline stated on the Exam Reschedule Form. Forms are available at www.tyndale.ca/registrar or in the Office of the Registrar.
3. If a student is ill on the day of the exam, he or she should not call the Registrar or professor, but submit an Exam Reschedule Form and doctor’s note to the Office of the Registrar within 48 hours of the originally scheduled exam time.

CLASSROOM CONDUCT
Laptops/Electronics
Electronics Policy:
Professors have the right to prohibit the use in class of some or all electronic communication devices. Students who require electronic devices (such as laptop computers) because of officially documented disabilities will be exempted from such prohibitions.

Recording of Classes
1. Students must request permission from the professor of the particular class that they would like to record.
2. Where permission is granted, students are expected to supply their own equipment.
3. If a student is not able to attend a lecture and would like to have it recorded, it is the responsibility of the student to obtain the professor’s permission, find another student to record the lecture and to supply that student with the recording device.

TYNDALE POLICIES & RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors, using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment, improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism.

Tyndale University College & Seminary takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to apply consequences for academic dishonesty. Students are advised to consult the Academic Calendar http://www.tyndale.ca/registrar/calendar for more information on this policy and its application to their work in this course.

Students can also speak to Advising Services to understand their learning style and how it can best serve their academic experience. At any point in the semester, Advising Services may contact students for progress meetings. The purpose of these meetings is to understand how a student is progressing during the semester, identify any challenges that might be affecting their performance, and refer students to support services at Tyndale. Advising Services has a close relationship with faculty and may intervene and provide assistance to students on a faculty member’s recommendation.

Midterm progress reports are administered at the halfway point in the fall and winter semesters. Faculty will release midterm grades to Advising Services and in conjunction with the Office of the Registrar, students will be informed of their progress, if appropriate. It is understood that midterm progress meetings are mandatory for any students who are contacted.
