Required Statements:

It answers the deeper questions of life such as: Why is there a universe and what is the meaning of life? A person's worldview is a basic framework which guides one's thoughts day by day and guides one's actions in all areas of life. It can be thought of as a life philosophy. As such, one's worldview will influence what one considers to be the purpose of education, the approach to teaching and learning and therefore, the reason why one may choose to attend a Christian university.
