1. COURSE DESCRIPTION

“Who are we and what are we here for?” is the life’s fundamental and profound question that every Christians should seek answers from the Bible. While seeking answers through the Biblical Theology to this question, God’s people understand why it is important to interpret the Bible from the missional perspective and where we are now and all the aspects of life are ways to participate in God’s mission.

2. COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

- Articulate answers to the question: Who are we and what are we here for?
- Understand the grand story that they are part of
- Differentiate two perspectives: Biblical basis of the mission vs. Mission basis of the Bible
- Be aware of their whole life is participation in God’s mission
- Understand they are redeemed for redemptive living
- Understand they are representing God to the world
- Committed bearing witness to the living God and proclaiming the Gospel of Christ
