

Master of Theological Studies: Pentecostal Studies

Coordinator: Dr. Van Johnson | 416.226.6620, ext. 2137 | vjohnson@tyndale.ca

The purpose of the Master of Theological Studies in Pentecostal Studies is to educate and equip students who wish to specialize in Pentecostal Studies within the broader evangelical context of Tyndale Seminary. The program is a creative collaboration between MCS-Horizon and Tyndale Seminary and offers an integrated program of cognitive, practical and spiritual formation for ministry. The program is open to all students, although the primary audience is Pentecostal pastors and lay leaders who desire an opportunity for intensive study of the Pentecostal tradition.

Online Learning

Tyndale Seminary offers a number of courses in asynchronous and synchronous online delivery formats each semester. In a synchronous online format, professors and students engage the course content together at the same time but from different locations. Online attendance at a specific time for all course activities is required. Some courses also consist of pre-recorded lectures and materials. In an asynchronous online format, professors and students engage the course content at different times and from different locations. Attendance at a specific time or location is not required.

Courses are developed to ensure an exceptional educational experience. The online system is designed to be user-friendly with learning sequences and activities that are simple to follow. Students do not need to purchase special software. Online courses can be easily accessed through the student's Tyndale account. The system includes online help files, technical support and a link to the J. William Horsey Library. Qualified librarians are available to assist students to access relevant databases and electronic materials in Tyndale's collection and server. Students also receive technical support for their courses.
