The Master of Theological Studies provides a comprehensive foundation in Christian theology, faith and practice. It is designed with great flexibility so that students may tailor their studies to meet their learning and ministry goals. Students may select electives from across the curriculum, or use them to focus their studies in a chosen concentration: Biblical Languages, Biblical Studies, Christian Education and Discipleship, Christian History, Counselling, Global Christianity and Mission, Indigenous Studies, Leadership, Pastoral Ministry, Pastoral Thanatology, Pentecostal Studies, Spiritual Formation, Theological Studies or Youth and Family Ministry.

Students wishing to use the program as preparation for advanced theological study should plan their program carefully, in consultation with their advisor, and use their electives to take advanced courses and specialize in a particular field and the completion of a thesis.

The Master of Theological Studies can be completed fully online.
