The mission of Tyndale Seminary is to provide Christ-centred graduate theological education for leaders in the church and society whose lives are marked by intellectual maturity, spiritual vigour and moral integrity, and whose witness will faithfully engage culture with the Gospel.

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course (with its continuation, NEWT 0524) is designed to bring students with an elementary knowledge of Koine Greek to the point where they can comfortably use the Greek text of the New Testament as the basis for their regular study and teaching. Students will expand their working Greek vocabulary and deepen their grasp of Greek grammar so that they can read the New Testament fluently with the help of standard reading guides. These language skills will be developed in the process of actually interpreting extended excerpts from the New Testament, so that students become comfortable with using Greek in real life contexts and expand their repertoire of interpretive approaches at the same time.

Prerequisites: Biblical Interpretation (BIBL 0501); Elementary Greek I and II (NEWT 0321/0322)

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

Translate a section of Mark's Gospel with the help of a lexicon and a grammar, making only a few errors [evidenced in Weekly Exegesis and Class Participation];

- 1) Successfully analyze most of the grammar and syntax in actual New Testament sentences [evidenced in Weekly Quizzes, Weekly Exegesis and Class Participation]. About three quarters of the time students should be able to:
 - a) successfully parse a familiar Greek word;
 - b) provide an accurate gloss for a common Greek word (occurring 30 times or more in the NT);
 - c) identify the principal parts of a common irregular verb in the NT;
 - d) explain the role of a participle, genitive phrase, dative phrase, etc. and translate it accordingly;
 - e) illustrate and translate common syntactical structures;
 - f) accurately diagram a Greek clause using sentence-flow diagramming.
- 2) Demonstrate proficiency in a range of methods for interpreting NT narratives, showing how the result of each one helps to shape our understanding of the message of a passage [evidenced in Weekly Exegesis and Class Participation]:
 - a) do a word study inductively;
 - b) identify the form of a Gospel pericope;
 - c) analyze the relationships among the versions of a pericope found in the three Synoptic Gospels;
 - d) analyze the place and role of a pericope within the structure and themes of the book;
 - e) analyze references or allusions to the OT.

III. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. REQUIRED READING

- 1) Wallace, Daniel. The Basics of New Testament Syntax: An Intermediate Greek Grammar. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2000. (ISBN-10: 0310232295; ISBN-13: 9780310232292)
Or (if you want the full version) Wallace's Greek Grammar Beyond the Basics
 - 2) Vocabulary memorization software (or your own system): for example, Anki (free) or Quizlet.
 - 3) It is also presumed that students have a copy of the Greek New Testament in one of the two standard editions:
 - a) Aland, Kurt, et al. The Greek New Testament. 5th Edition. Stuttgart: Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft, 2014. (UBS⁵)
 - b) Aland, Barbara, Kurt Aland, et al. Novum Testamentum Graece. 28th Edition. Stuttgart: Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft, 2012. (NA²⁸)

B. SUPPLEMENTARY / RECOMMENDED READING AND TOOLS

C. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

WEEKLY EXEGESIS
Each week students will be responsible to exegete a passage from the New Testament on their own, prior to class. This exegesis will involve: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • translating the passage, providing explanatory footnotes (These should parse any unusual or difficult words, explain any unusual or ambiguous grammar, and highlight any places where the translation is paraphrastic); • sentence flow diagramming of clauses/sentences as assigned; • using basic reference tools to locate the passage in its historical and literary contexts; • identifying the message of the passage for a contemporary audience; • applying any additional interpretive methods assigned that week. This work will be marked primarily for completeness and thoughtfulness. Accuracy does count, but it is not the primary concern. Students should make corrections and further notes in light of class discussions of each passage, though these should be made in a different colour so as to be easily distinguishable. Notes should also reflect improvement in accuracy and facility with interpretive tools over the term. Note: When parsing difficult words students may not use a parsing aid until a reasonable attempt has been made (several minutes minimum, five minutes maximum) to parse the term for oneself.	Due weekly at the end of class	50%
CLASS PARTICIPATION
Students will be expected to participate actively, appropriately, and thoughtfully in class discussions and in-class exercises. This includes coming to each class prepared to discuss their exegesis of the passage assigned that week.	Weekly	10%
WEEKLY QUIZZES
Class will begin each week with a quiz to test: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • students' grasp of assigned morphology • students' memorization of the vocabulary assigned so far • students' ability to translate a Greek sentence Note that each quiz is cumulative and will not necessarily emphasize newly reviewed material. The one lowest quiz grade will be dropped.	Weekly	40%
TOTAL		100%

D. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services.

Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

E. SUMMARY OF ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

Evaluation is based upon the completion of the following assignments:

Weekly Exegesis	50 %
Class Participation	10 %
Weekly Quizzes	40 %
Total Grade	100 %

F. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

For proper citation style, consult the Chicago-Style Quick Guide (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.44 to 10.48 and 14.238 to 14.241.

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism. Tyndale University College & Seminary takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students are encouraged to consult writing resources.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Office (Room B302; aau@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.

G. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student's learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.
