I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Tyndale Seminary Internship Program (TSIP) is a central component in the theological curriculum at Tyndale Seminary. All MDiv students must complete at least a two-term internship in their major area of study. The Internship provides students with a vibrant and transformative context for integrating the theological, spiritual, relational, and vocational dimensions of Christian ministry and leadership.

The Internship has a formative aim in developing theologically reflective Christian leaders for service in the Church and the world. Through engagement in real-world ministry in supervised placements, interns are provided with opportunities to work alongside experienced ministry mentors to develop ministry competencies, to set and meet individualized learning goals, and to clarify and confirm their ministry gifts and calling.

Students in MDiv (Counselling) and MDiv (Spiritual Formation) have specific internship requirements and should consult their program coordinators for details. Internships for all other MDiv students are overseen by TSIP. Students enrolled in the MTS program may elect to take an Internship course (PRAC 0701). Students with double majors require two internships.

Prerequisites: Students will normally have completed a minimum of 15 courses (45 credits) before registering for the Internship course. Prerequisite courses include SPIR 0700 Spiritual Formation, LEAD 0510 Leadership Development and MISS 0782 Gospel, Church and Culture. Exceptional cases will be considered by the Director of the TSIP. Further details regarding Internship requirements and guidelines are provided in the Internship Manual.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate growth in ministry capacities and competencies in accordance with their individualized learning covenant and their ministry major competency requirements
- Engage and contribute effectively the practice of both personal and group theological reflection on ministry experience
- Analyze the social, cultural, and global context of God's mission in the world with particular focus on their own ministry setting
- Understand the value of mentoring, supervision, and peer accountability for lifelong personal, professional, and spiritual growth
- Identify and articulate one's calling, aptitudes, growing edges and personal philosophy of ministry
- Demonstrate an integrative understanding of the Biblical, theological, historical, spiritual and personal dimensions of Christian ministry

III. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. INTERNSHIP

1. INTERNSHIP SITE:

Students will select an internship site and Placement Supervisor, in close collaboration with the professor, Dr. Marilyn Draper and the Internship Director, Dr. Michael Krause. (Note: The process for selecting and negotiating an internship site should begin several months in advance of the Internship and must be approved by the Internship Director or Professor Draper prior to registration in the course. Registration cannot be done online but by using a “Registration for a Non-Classroom Course” form that can be found at the page for Forms for the Office of the Registrar).

2. INTERNSHIP HOURS:

Engagement in at least 260 hours of ministry experience throughout the duration of the internship (approximately 8-10 hours per week over two semesters.) Submit a record of your total weekly internship hours.

3. LEARNING COVENANT: (Required before registering for the course)

Formulation and adherence to an individualized Learning Covenant that identifies specific learning and ministry goals for the internship. The Learning Covenant is to be written in consultation with the Ministry Mentor and must be approved by the Internship Director or course professor.

4. SUPERVISION: (Due August 20, 2021)

Engagement in weekly mentoring/supervision/reflection sessions with the approved on-site Ministry Mentor/Placement Supervisor. Submit a record of weekly internship conversations with your supervisor or ministry mentor.

5. MINISTRY REFLECTION SEMINARS: (Various dates)

Attendance and participation in the Coordination Session, Final Integrative Seminar (usually scheduled during exam week) and four other Ministry Reflection Seminars for case study presentation and peer input are mandatory (Coordination Session + 4 Ministry Reflection Seminars + Final Integrative Seminar = 6 total). Students will meet in groups of 4 throughout the internship to present and reflect on their case studies. Specific seminar dates and groups will be determined at the Coordination Session.

6. MINISTRY REFLECTION CASE STUDIES: (Due on assigned dates – the student will write one case study each semester)

Students will write and submit two ministry reflection case studies over the course (one per semester, 5 pages each). Note: Students will attend two Ministry Reflection seminars each semester (see 5 above). In one, they will present their case study for peer input. In the second Ministry Reflection Seminar, they will provide input on the case study of two peers. Specific due dates will be dependent on the date of the seminar. See class webpage on Moodle and guidelines.

7. FINAL (SUMMATIVE) INTEGRATIVE REFLECTION PAPER: (Due August 20, 2021)

A 12-page Final Integrative Reflection Paper due one week prior to the last day of the semester (see guidelines). This integrative paper will be discussed during a final Integrative Ministry Reflection Seminar, normally held at the end of the semester.

8. MID-TERM SELF-EVALUATIONS: (Due April 30, 2021)

Submission of mid-term student self-evaluation (signed by the ministry mentor) (see guidelines).

9. SUPERVISOR'S EVALUATION: (Due August 20, 2021)

Submission of a final end of course evaluation of the student by the ministry mentor. The document can be found on the course page on Moodle or at the webpage for Resources and Forms.

10. INTERNSHIP PROGRAM EVALUATION: (Due August 20, 2021)

At the end of the internship, fill out a Student Internship Program Evaluation Form focusing in on your own experience, your experience with the supervisor, and with the internship site.

B. SUPPLEMENTARY / RECOMMENDED READING AND TOOLS

Because the Internship and Ministry Reflection Seminars are designed as a context for integrating classroom learning with the practice of ministry, the “reading list” comprises the all reading that one has done in the courses taken to date. In addition, the following are particularly helpful resources in thinking theologically about the practice of ministry.

Hillman, George M. Jr. Ministry Greenhouse: Cultivating Environments for Practical Learning. Herdon, VA: The Alban Institute, 2008.

Howard W. Stone and James O. Duke. How to Think Theologically. Minneapolis: Fortress Press, 1996.

Nouwen, Henri. In the Name of Jesus: Reflections on Christian Leadership. New York: The Crossroad Publishing Company, 1992.

Peterson, Eugene. Working the Angles: The Shape of Pastoral Integrity. Grand Rapids, MI: Wm. B. Eerdmans Publishing Co., 1989.

Tyndale recommends www.stepbible.org – a free and reputable online resource developed by Tyndale House (Cambridge, England) – for word searches of original-language texts, as well as for topical searches, interlinear texts, dictionaries, etc. Refer to the library for other online resources for Biblical Studies.

C. INTERACTIVE LIVESTREAM AND/OR HYBRID COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- Livestream attendance at announced times
- Headphones (preferred), built-in microphone, and web-camera
- Well-lit and quiet room
- Stable high-speed internet connection, preferably using an Ethernet cable over Wi-Fi

D. GRADING AND EVALUATION

By the end of the internship, students will have a portfolio of documents providing evidence of their growth and learning through the internship experience. These documents must all be submitted to the course page to receive the internship credit. The portfolio will include:

- The Learning Covenant outlining the student's individualized learning and ministry plan
- The Site Placement Form indicating the agreement between the student's supervisor and Tyndale Seminary
- Mid-term Self-Evaluation Report, reflecting on progress and learning in the Internship based on goals outlined in the learning covenant
- Supervisor's Final Evaluation by the Ministry Mentor providing feedback and reflection on ministry strengths and areas for future growth
- Two ministry reflection case studies from the Ministry Reflection Seminars with feedback from fellow students (one for each semester)
- A summary of your internship hours and your weekly internship conversations with your supervisor or ministry mentor
- Final Integrative (Summative) Reflection paper integrating learning that occurred during the internship and the course of all your seminary learning and presented to other students during the last Ministry Reflection Seminar

Notes:

1. Guidelines for all course requirements can be found on the TSIP website and on the course page on Moodle.
2. All assignments must be submitted on the course page on Moodle.

3. Hard copy (paper) documents must be scanned and submitted electronically to the course page. All photocopiers at Tyndale are able to scan and email scanned documents to student's email addresses.
4. All internship requirements must be completed in order to pass the course. This includes mandatory attendance at the Coordination Session, the four Ministry Reflection Seminars, and the Final Integrative Seminar (6 in total), as well as completion and submission of all documents as outlined above.
5. The course is graded on a Credit/No-Credit basis.

E. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services. Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

G. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

For proper citation style, consult the Chicago-Style Quick Guide (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.44 to 10.48 and 14.238 to 14.241.

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism. Tyndale University takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students are encouraged to consult Writing Services. Citation and other tip sheets.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and may require approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Dean's Office (aa@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.
