I. COURSE DESCRIPTION 課程簡介

Correlated with lessons learned in the classroom, students will complete a mentored learning experience of a total of six internship sessions. Systematically, students will develop skills in observation, analysis and reflection on the practice of ministry in their own church, other designated churches or para-church organizations. Students may choose to intern in a mission field.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES 課程目標

The pastoral placement is intended to provide interns with opportunities to integrate theological, spiritual, relational, and vocational dimensions of Christian ministry and leadership as they serve alongside experienced Ministry Mentors, to discover how theory and praxis connect, and to grow and develop, personally and professionally.

In addition to the required course work, each MDiv student is required to complete three credits of Internship studies which includes 12 hours classroom instruction and 260 hours field education, maintain an ongoing involvement in a ministry related Chinese church/parachurch/mission setting that will provide him/her with direct pastoral experience under the supervision of an experienced pastor/professional/missionary.

Field Education Credits

Each field education credit comprises of 10 hours per week of supervised internship in a local church or para-church setting over a period of 2 terms, 13 weeks each term with a total of 26 weeks, 260 hours. This Internship studies will take place during the second year of MDiv study. To encourage mission participation and understanding, students should join a short term mission during the summer after the second year of study. In principle, students are not allowed to complete more than two field education credits in the mission field out of the five. Also, students are not allowed to earn more than two field education credits in any one mission trip. However, exceptional cases may be considered by the Director of Internship Program.

Placement Settings

Students are expected to find a placement in a local congregation or para-church institution, and it is the student's responsibility to find a placement setting that is appropriate to his/her present or anticipated interests. However the placement ought to afford the widest possible experience in pastoral ministry. Listings of placements can also be acquired from the Director of Internship Program.

It is recommended that students should stay in the home church during their first year of MDiv study. Upon completion of the first year, students will start their Internship studies in a different church setting with the permission of the home church.

Normally students should complete the Internship studies in the second year of MDiv study. Students are encouraged to continue to gain field experience with a ministry setting of their choice during the last year of the degree program, in view that the internship may prepare them for ministry after graduation.

At the end of the course, students will be able to: 讀畢本科，學生可以

- Demonstrate growth in ministry capacities and competencies in accordance with their individualized learning covenant and their ministry major competency requirements
- Engage and contribute effectively the practice of both personal and group theological reflection on ministry experience
- Analyze the social, cultural, and global context of God's mission in the world with particular focus on their own ministry setting
- Understand the value of mentoring, supervision, and peer accountability for lifelong personal, professional, and spiritual growth
- Identify and articulate one's calling, aptitudes, growing edges and personal philosophy of ministry
- Demonstrate an integrative understanding of the Biblical, theological, historical, spiritual and personal dimensions of Christian ministry

Internship Requirement

Internship Studies includes two components:

1. 12 hours In classroom sessions in the Fall semester of second year of studies
2. 10 hours per week (for a total of 26 weeks, 13 weeks per term) of field studies in local church in G.T.A. and Southern Ontario, para-church organizations, local community.

Internship Studies begins in Fall term (September) and end in Winter term (April). It is strongly recommended students should have taken the Internship Studies course in the second year of the three-year program if they enter the MDiv program in May or September. For students entering MDiv program in January, they can begin in the September of the same year. Exceptional cases may be considered by the Director of Internship Program.

I. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student's learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.
