I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to enhance individual, marriage and family counselling within the context of a multicultural environment. Exposes students to the literature and principles of cross-cultural counselling from a multi-systems perspective. Independent research on a culturally different population relevant to the student’s current or anticipated counselling will be presented in seminar format. Practical involvement supplements the theoretical work within that particular populations.

Recommended prerequisite: COUN 0574 or equivalent. COUN majors only or by permission of program coordinator.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate proficiency in critical self-reflection and describe culture-bound worldview, assumptions, biases, theoretical orientation, and experiences that impact the therapeutic relationship.
2. Explain and apply the importance of multicultural competencies relevant to therapy and critically assess the effectiveness of applying cultural responsiveness to improve client outcomes.
3. Identify terms related to oppression, power, privilege, racism, and discrimination and explain the impact of these factors on clients and the therapeutic relationship. In addition, propose interventions and strategies to mitigate these issues in therapy.
4. Explore contextual data about a chosen cultural group (e.g. racial/ethnic) and compare the cultural contexts to enhance understanding, and to bridge differences in the therapeutic practice.
5. Recognize counselling skills that are culturally effective with multicultural populations and provide suggestions to strengthen advocacy and social responsibility for diverse clients, including Indigenous and First Nations Peoples.

C. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

1. Livestream Class Participation: 10% of the final grade

Regular visual attendance and punctuality for all classes, reading the materials before class, and participation in group discussions are expected. If you have three or more unexcused absences, you may fail the course. (See the Attendance Policy for details.)

Educational research reveals that maximum benefits in online instructional formats result when students take personal responsibilities to complete readings, engage actively (e.g. forums), and consciously contribute to a virtual learning community through a spirit of collaboration, openness, and encouragement. “Attendance” in this course is demonstrated by regular logins on-time, visual onscreen appearance, and up-to-date participation in forums and class participation.

This class includes regular “Small Group Discussions.” Student participation will be graded on a scale of 1 to 4: 1 (or D): present, not disruptive; responds when called on but does not offer much; infrequent involvement; 2 (or C): adequate preparation, but no evidence of interpretation of analysis; offers straightforward information; contributes moderately when called upon; 3 (or B): good preparation, offers interpretation and analysis, contributes well to the discussion in on-going fashion; 4 (or A): excellent preparation, offers analysis, synthesis, and evaluation of material; contributes significantly to the ongoing discussion.

2. Biblical Narrative Research Paper: Due October 5. 20% of final grade.

This assignment is related to Learning Outcome #1.

Assignment (7-8 pages), excluding title page and references.

Part 1 (4-6 pages)

Write a Biblical narrative/story from the NT/OT where there is a clash of cultures:

- What was the cultural context?
- Who were the players involved?
- How was the difference in culture handled?

Please include at least two references (in addition to the Bible) to support your findings in this area.

Part 2 (2-3 pages)

In the last section of the paper please answer the following question:

- What implications/principles from the text can be applied today to demonstrate cultural competence in a clinical counseling context?

In this section, please include references to cultural competence from at least five journal articles on cultural competence (i.e., sources from the class content and additional). These sources will support your argument.

3. Case Study/Reflective Paper: Due November 9. 25% of final grade.

Farrelly, P. (Director). 2018. Green Book. [Film]. Universal Pictures, Nordisk Film Distribution.

This assignment is related to Learning Outcomes #3.

Assignment (7-8 pages), excluding title page and references.

Choose one character as a case study (Dr. Donald Shirley or Tony Lip), and discuss how you would propose the ways oppression, power, privilege, racism, and discrimination would impact the client and the therapeutic relationship. As a culturally responsive therapist using the “ICANSTART conceptualization framework” [TEMPLATE will be given], how might you navigate working with this client coming in for counselling due to concerns with oppression, power, privilege, racism, and discrimination? Use at least five references provided in the course.

4. Cultural Engagement Research: Integrative Theoretical Orientation Paper, and Formal Group Presentation

Part 1: Group Presentations on November 24 or December 1. 30% of final grade.

Part 2: Personal Integrative Theoretical Orientation Paper: Due December 7. 15% of final grade.

This assignment is related to Learning Outcomes #1, #2, #4 & #5.

Purpose: This assignment aims to involve the student in an experiential exercise through engaging with members (via a virtual platform) of a cultural group (e.g., racial/ethnic group) different from their own. It also seeks to challenge the student to practice cross-cultural interactions and gather contextual data, assess cultural differences, and generate ideas on how they would engage the identified differences with cultural competence in multicultural counselling.

Method: Students will be grouped in groups of three to five (depending on class size) Each student is expected to conduct two interviews (i.e. FaceTime, Skype, Zoom, etc., or in person practicing) with any combination of the following: individuals, a couple, or a family from their group's selected culture. Therefore, in a group of three, for example, there will be a total of six interviews combined.

Consent is needed from each interviewee and the consent form is provided on Moodle;

- Groups are expected to work collaboratively to generate a collective analysis of the cultural group you jointly select;
- Groups should agree to meet regularly (virtually) as needed, to collaborate on their findings;
- Student engagement/idea exchange within the groups is part of this assignment.

Below are some of the possible questions that you may explore in the interviews and research:

- How do they raise their children?
- What constitutes child abuse in their culture?
- What are the parameters for socialization and values/character formation?
- What constitutes attaining adulthood or maturity?
- What are the traditions and processes of dating and getting married?
- What rules govern their family structures, kinship patterns, and social circle?
- What are their attitudes and values towards women, the sick, and the elderly?
- How do they perceive people of other cultures?
- How do they think others perceive their culture?
- How do they attempt to relate to others of a different culture?
- What are their value systems and worldviews?
- What are the attitudes and beliefs about mental illness/mental health?
- What is their view of mental health practitioners?
- What is the place of spirituality and religion in their culture?
- How do they live out their religious beliefs in daily life?
- Do they identify with more than one culture?

Include a slide in the presentation with your group's recommendations for practicing cultural competence with the selected culture, using data from your interviewees and course resources.

How you will be evaluated:

- Pre-Recorded Group Presentation: You are to give an oral presentation about the culture you selected and how you might engage them in a ministry/counselling context;

- This should be a PowerPoint presentation or another platform that is user-friendly with Zoom and can be easily accessible via classes.tyndale.ca. Please submit via email to the professor;
- Each group member is to participate in the presentation;
- The length of time for the presentations will be decided in class and will depend on the class size. You will be assigned a time slot on either Nov 24 or Dec 1

Presentations will be graded in five areas:

- a. Content i.e., clarity, informative/well organized/how in-depth & well-researched (include up to 100-year history research of the cultural background).
- b. Collaboration i.e., evidence of cooperation, co-creation, shared learning
- c. Creativity: i.e., presentation style, engaging.
- d. Application i.e., how you would apply “cultural competence” from what you have learned.
- e. Use of time i.e., staying within the allotted time.

Part 2: Personal Integrative Theoretical Orientation Paper: Due Dec 7.

Students will write an individual paper (4-5 pages) that synthesizes their collective knowledge and assesses the cultural group and findings of the interviewees.

- a) [2-3 pages] Describe how the cultural group you chose seems to formulate its cultural norms in the following areas:
  - View of individual personhood and character formation
  - Marriage, family, family values, and legacies
  - Society, nationhood, and the world
  - View on mental health, pathology, counselling
  - View of religion, view of Christianity
- a) [1-2 pages] Summarize and discuss insights gained from interacting with this cultural group, including similarities and differences with your culture, and aspects you might embrace or avoid.
- b) [1 page] Reflect on your learning from the course and identify your theoretical orientation integrating faith and a multicultural counselling framework.

Use at least five peer-reviewed articles and/or texts for reference from course content and additional sources.

TURNITIN for Written Assignments #1, #2, and #4

Tyndale has a subscription to text-matching software called Turnitin. This software is used to ensure the originality of academic writing and to check that all of the sources used have been cited correctly. The instructor for this course will be using this software for the assignments that are submitted through your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca. When you submit your assignment, you will see a summary of your submission, which includes the file(s) that you submitted as well as a similarity report generated by Turnitin.

Use of AI: Assignments reporting over 20% AI Generated may require the student to rewrite the paper/assignment or it may be subject to an Academic Integrity review. Please refer to the Academic Integrity Policy.

Expected written standards:

It is expected that written work will be submitted in a clear, straightforward academic style. The assignments ought to present clear organization, a coherent position, and arguments that support that position. Your work should adhere to the following characteristics:

- Submission of the document in Word format, assignment saved with Course Code_Title of Assignment (Biblical/Case/Personal)_First Name_Last Name e.g., Coun0671IS_Biblical_Michelle_Laxamana
- Documentation and notes should be consistent with APA 7 guidelines as articulated in the Guidelines for Submission for the Counselling Department.
- Free of spelling mistakes, punctuated correctly, and adhered to basic rules of grammar.
- Writing should be clear, concise, and organized with no run-on sentences; use action words rather than various forms of the “to-be” verb.
- Use Times New Roman, 12-point font typed, double-spaced, with one-inch margins all around. Numbered pages.
- Ensure that you have accurately documented sources used in any of your assignments.

Submission and Return of Assignments:

Copies of the assignments are to be submitted directly to the Instructor in Word Document version via classes.tyndale.ca on the due date unless otherwise specified. Work must be received on or before the due date. Otherwise, they will be treated as late. Students are required to retain a copy of all assignments.

With the exception of “extreme and unusual circumstances” all papers handed in late will be deducted by two-thirds of a grade point (i.e., B to C+). No paper will be accepted after two weeks past the due date.

If there are some extraordinary circumstances, please complete the REQUEST FOR EXTENSION DUE TO EXTREME CIRCUMSTANCES form found at the end of the syllabus. Specify the nature of the circumstances and submit it to the instructor directly by the due date of that assignment. Late requests on or after the due date of assignments will not be accepted.

C. GUIDELINES FOR INTERACTIONS

Tyndale University prides itself in being a trans-denominational community. We anticipate our students to have varied viewpoints which will enrich the discussions in our learning community. Therefore, we ask our students to be charitable and respectful in their interactions with each other, and to remain focused on the topic of discussion, out of respect to others who have committed to being a part of this learning community. Please refer to “Guidelines for Interactions” on your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca.

D. GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

Grading Rubric

Please consult the rubric provided for each assignment on your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca.

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism (including improper use of artificial intelligence programs). Tyndale University takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Academic Integrity website for further details.

For proper citation style, consult Citation Guides for different styles. Students are encouraged to consult Writing Services.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Turnitin Text-Matching Software

Tyndale has a subscription to Turnitin, a text-matching software that ensures the originality of academic writing and verifies the proper citation of all sources. The instructor for this course will use Turnitin for assignments submitted through your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca. Upon submission, you will receive a summary that includes your submitted files along with a similarity report generated by Turnitin. Please be aware that Turnitin can also detect AI-generated content from tools like Grammarly, so students should be mindful of when using such software. It's advisable to confirm with your instructor before using any AI tools into your assignments. Below are some useful resources:

- Student Guides for Turnitin via classes.tyndale.ca course resource page
- Interpreting Similarity (Guide, Video, Spectrum)

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and may require approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Dean's Office (seminaryoffice@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.

Late Papers and Extensions Policy

All papers and course assignments must be submitted by the due dates indicated in the course syllabus. Unless the instructor already has a policy on grading late papers in the course syllabus, grades for papers submitted late without an approved extension will be lowered at the rate of two-thirds of a grade per week or part thereof (e.g., from "A+" to "A-," from "B" to "C+"). Please note that some programs, such as cohort-based or intensive courses, may follow a different policy due to the nature of the program.

Faculty may not grant an extension beyond the last day of exams for the semester. Requests for extensions beyond this date must be addressed in writing to the Registrar by filling out the Extension Request Form. The application will be considered only in cases such as a death in the family, medical emergency, hospitalization of oneself or immediate family member or prolonged illness requiring treatment by a physician. Factors such as assignments for other courses, holidays, and technology-related difficulties are insufficient grounds for requesting an extension.

A temporary grade of incomplete (“I”) may be granted by the Registrar. Once an extension is granted, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor and make satisfactory arrangements to complete the outstanding work. A grade of “F” will be recorded for students who do not complete the outstanding work by the deadline.

E. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student’s learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential, and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.

F. LIBRARY RESOURCES

Tyndale Library supports courses with e-journals, e-books, and the mail delivery of books and circulating materials. See the Library FAQ page.
