I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

A team-taught, comparative study of Reformed, Anglican, Anabaptist/Baptist, Methodist, and Pentecostal/Charismatic traditions of spirituality.

This course benefits from the participation of professors who are experts in their field and representatives of the traditions under study. The course will introduce students to the main themes, distinctive emphases and contemporary contributions of five major Protestant spiritual traditions.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- Examine each tradition's key thinkers, texts and resources;
- Identify the historical context for major Protestant traditions;
- Distinguish each tradition's central themes and distinctive emphases;
- Recognize practices of liturgy, prayer and worship in each tradition;
- Differentiate each tradition's contemporary relevance and contribution to the global body of Christ;
- Explore classical resources for spiritual growth;
- Develop skills in critical thinking while discussing issues of spirituality; and
- Critically reflect upon one's participation in one's own tradition in light of the course.

III. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. REQUIRED READING

Senn, Frank C., ed. Protestant Spiritual Traditions. Mahwah, NJ: Paulist Press, 1986. ISBN 080912761X, 9781579105518

Senn, Frank C., ed. Protestant Spiritual Traditions, Volume 2. Eugene, OR: Cascade Books, 2020. Soft-cover ISBN 978-1-5326-9829-3; e-book ISBN 978-1-5326-9831-6

A collection of primary and secondary readings on each tradition will be available on the course resource page: <http://classes.tyndale.ca>.

B. SUPPLEMENTARY / RECOMMENDED READING AND TOOLS

Tyndale recommends www.stepbible.org – a free and reputable online resource developed by Tyndale House (Cambridge, England) – for word searches of original-language texts, as well as for topical searches, interlinear texts, dictionaries, etc. Refer to the library for other online resources for Biblical Studies.

C. INTERACTIVE LIVESTREAM AND/OR HYBRID COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- Livestream attendance at announced times

- Headphones (preferred), built-in microphone, and web-camera
- Well-lit and quiet room
- Stable high-speed internet connection, preferably using an Ethernet cable over Wi-Fi

D. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

1. Attendance and participation is important; please be prompt for class (even online).

2. Papers (18% x 5 = 90% of Final Grade)

There are five papers of approximately 2000 words per paper on a topic assigned by each professor. 18% per paper. Due date is two weeks following the class lecture (unless stipulated otherwise by the instructor). Each paper is to be submitted through the class Moodle.

3. Church Visitation and Theological Reflection Paper (10% of Final Grade)

Due: April 12, 2021 (submit via the class Moodle in Portable Document Format [.pdf])

Each student is required to attend a worship gathering of one of the traditions studied in the course. It is to be liturgically different from her/his own denomination, and preferably one with which the student is least familiar. It is preferred that the student attend an in-person worship gathering as opposed to an online one, if the pandemic regulations permit it. Write a paper of approximately 4 pages containing two sections:

- a. A Subjective Response: How was God portrayed in the service? What was the ‘feel’ of the service and the congregation? What struck you about the architecture of the building? The order of service?
- b. A Theological Reflection: How did the service reflect the history and theology of the denomination? How did the sermon reflect the ethos of the denomination?

E. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services. Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

F. SUMMARY OF ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

Evaluation is based upon the completion of the following assignments:

Papers (5 X 18%)	90 %
Reflection Paper on Worship Gathering	10 %
Total Grade	100 %

G. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

Your work should demonstrate the following characteristics:

For proper citation style, consult the Chicago-Style Quick Guide (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.44 to 10.48 and 14.238 to 14.241.

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism. Tyndale University takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students are encouraged to consult Writing Services. Citation and other tip sheets.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and may require approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Dean's Office (aau@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.

H. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student's learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.

IV. COURSE SCHEDULE, CONTENT AND REQUIRED READINGS

Required Readings: Read the chapter in the Senn texts prior to the class on which that tradition is being presented, along with the readings and sources posted by the instructors (at their option and choice) to be found on the course resource page: <http://classes.tyndale.ca>

Students are encouraged to read the entirety of both volumes, but, at a minimum, the chapters on the Reformed, Anglican, Anabaptist, Baptist, Methodist, Evangelical, and Pentecostal traditions must be read.

January 22	Reformed Spirituality with Dr. Jeff Loach
February 5	Anglican Spirituality with Rev. Mark Regis
February 26	Wesleyan/Methodist Spirituality with Dr. James Pedlar
March 12	Anabaptist/Baptist Spirituality with Dr. Jonathan Slater
March 26	Pentecostal/Charismatic Spirituality with Dr. Van Johnson

V. SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY

Each professor will supply a select bibliography pertaining to the particular tradition.
