I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides a vision for Christian education (CE) in the life and mission of the church. Drawing from key passages in the Bible and the wider field of education, learners will develop a biblical theology of CE and discipleship, be familiar with some learning theories (especially Jesus’ model), reflect on one’s growth as disciple and teacher, and develop a working framework for teaching. The major goal is to build strong theological and educational foundations for effective teaching and discipleship in personal life, church and mission.

Jesus' great commission is to "make disciples of all nations, baptizing ... and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded...." (Mt. 28:18-20, NRSV). Affirming this, Graham Cray stated that, "Churches have to realize that the core of their calling is to be disciple-making communities, whatever else they do; the primary purpose of Christian community is formation as disciples."<sup>1</sup> However, many pastors and ministry leaders do not fully grasp the nature or role of CE, and often lack basic understanding in teaching and curriculum theory. This course seeks to address this important issue.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Outline a biblical theology of Christian education, see its role in teaching and discipleship in the church, and understand some of its challenges today.
2. Develop greater self-awareness as "disciple" and "teacher" through reflections on a biblical understanding of "discipleship," readings in Christian education, and review of the impact of past mentors (and their teaching values) in one's life.
3. Acquire a working knowledge of some important educational theorists (especially Jesus' model) for one's practice and development as pastor (shepherd-teacher) and ministry leader.

This course seeks to meet the Master of Divinity learning outcome #4: "To develop & hone skills for theologically reflective ministry practice in its various forms."

Fernando, Director of Youth for Christ, Sri Lanka for most of his life, reflects on discipleship in different areas of personal, family, and church life in Sri Lanka.

Seymour, Jack L. *Teaching the Way of Jesus: Educating Christians for Faithful Living*. Nashville, TN: Abingdon Press, 2014.

Groome, Thomas H. Will There Be Faith? A New Vision for Educating and Growing Disciples. Harper One, 2011.

We will study Groome's "shared Christian praxis" approach to teaching, which first appeared in his Christian Religious Education (HarperSanFrancisco/Jossey-Bass, 1980/1999), and remains a major theme in this book. Here, he outlines his vision of Christian religious education in the Roman Catholic tradition.

C. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

1. Forum Discussions

This assignment is related to learning outcomes #1, #2, and #3.

Educational research and student feedback suggest that maximum benefit in online learning results when students take a personal responsibility to complete readings, engage actively and on time in forum discussions, and consciously contribute to a virtual learning community (collaboration, openness, mutual support). “Attendance” in this course is demonstrated by regular log-ins and up-to-date participation in forums. I will be reading your posts and responses regularly, with intermittent comments, but my main response would be to your “group conclusions” each week.

Individual Posts (5 X 6 = 30 %)

Students will engage in biweekly forum discussions in weeks #3, 5, 7, 9, 11 (total of 5 forums). Two questions would be posted each week of the forum. Students will post their response by 11:55 PM on Wednesday evening of the week in question, and then respond to the posts of other students in their group by 11:55 PM on Thursday of that same week. Your post for each forum should be about 50 lines (200-250 words per question; total 500 words per forum; can exceed by 10%, but marks deducted thereafter). Each post should be concise, with a clear understanding of issues supported with referenced direct quotations (readings, lectures), demonstrate critical thinking (questions or issues raised), and with 1 application to your context. Your response to fellow students would be briefer, with affirmation (from your experience or readings) and 1 thoughtful question for further reflection. You are not required to respond to a “late post” of any member.

Group Conclusion (one, 5 %)

After the individual posts and responses, one member of the group will write a group conclusion. This conclusion will provide the following summary: (1) major points important to CE and discipleship; (2) questions/issues discussed; (3) practical applications. This conclusion is due by 11:55 PM on Friday evening of the week in question. The conclusion should be about 30-35 lines (300-350 words; marks deducted if you exceed limit). Your group is responsible for establishing a schedule for conclusion writers. Each student will only write one conclusion through the course. You do not need to include “late post” of any member.

Penalty for late work:

“Late posts” and “conclusions” will be noted, and the penalty is one mark deduction for every day late (inclusive of Saturdays and Sundays). The total number of “late days” will be recorded at the end of the course and your grade for the “forum assignment” would be reduced accordingly. Penalty for late work would be a reduction of 2/3 of a grade per week or part thereof (e.g. from A+ to A – or B to C+), inclusive of Saturdays and Sundays. If there is “no post” after Friday of the week of the forum, the student will receive a “zero” for that forum. If there are specific reasons for late posts (as stated in “Late Papers and Extension Policy,” Seminary Academic Calendar 2020-21), the student is to email the instructor directly.

Evaluation criteria: see “Grading Rubric for Forum Discussions” (posted on Moodle).

2. Reflection Papers on Tye & Palmer (2 X 15 = 30 % of final grade)

This assignment is related to learning outcomes #1 and #3.

Write a personal reflection paper on what you judge to be the THREE most important (major) ideas in Tye and Palmer (one major idea in each chapter), with implications for your particular teaching/church context.

For Tye

- (a) Outline clearly, what you discern to be the three most important (major) ideas, supported with direct referenced quotations and personal comments.
- (b) Explain why these ideas are important to the teaching ministry and mission of the Church.
- (c) What insights, applications and questions do these major ideas spark for you, as pastor and/or ministry leader at your church?

For Palmer

- (a) Outline clearly, what you discern as the three most important (major) ideas, supported with direct referenced quotations and personal comments.
- (b) Explain why these ideas are important for your development as a person who teach, mentor or influence others in church or other settings.
- (c) What insights, applications and questions about “teacher” and “teaching” do these ideas spark for you?

Due Date:

Tye reflection, Feb. 22 (2-3 pages, single-spaced)

Palmer reflection, Mar. 22 (2-3 pages, single-spaced)

Evaluation criteria: as above.

Note: I use the “review and track changes” feature in MS Word to grade all papers and find it easier when assignments are in single-spaced documents. Tyndale has an institutional license for MS Office 365, and all students can have a complimentary copy (log in to mytyndale.ca for details). Please submit all your work in MS Word.

3. Major Project (35 %)

Option A: Gifted Teacher

This assignment is related to learning outcomes #1 and #3.

You will interview a “gifted teacher” with substantial teaching experience in church or public setting (if you select a pastor, the emphasis is on “teaching” and not “preaching.”) You will ask this person to outline core values and practice in his/her teaching and how these were nurtured over the years. A list of questions for this interview is posted on Moodle and you should provide this to your interviewee a week ahead. If social distancing persists, a phone interview will suffice. A “statement of consent to participate in research interview” to be signed by the interviewee is posted on Moodle. This should be submitted along with this major project to the instructor.

Relate what you discover in this interview-research with insights from lectures and readings. Engage with your interviewee’s comments, affirming insights shared with relevant direct referenced quotations from readings (Tye, Morgan, Palmer, articles discussed), lectures, as well as raising issues/questions that were not discussed by your interviewee. Conclude with implications for your development and growth as pastor or teacher in your faith community.

Note: Select the person you interview very carefully. S/he should be experienced and recognized for his/her teaching gift, so that you get some good data. If you interview a pastor, the focus of your conversation should be on “teaching” (interactive) and not “preaching” (proclamation).

Length: 7-8 pages, single-spaced.

Due date: Apr. 10

Evaluation criteria: posted on Moodle.

Option B: My Growth as Disciple and Teacher-Mentor

This assignment is related to learning outcomes #2 and #3.

This assignment is an attempt to help you develop greater self-awareness of your growth as “disciple” and as “pastor/teacher-mentor.”

To prepare, draw a time line of your life and highlight critical moments where your discipleship to Jesus deepened significantly. What happened? What aspects of your life were challenged? How do these aspects relate to what you learned about discipleship in Morgan? What other aspects of discipleship has Morgan raised for deeper self-reflection and growth (include direct referenced quotations from Morgan)?

In another section of the time line, highlight important teacher-mentors who impacted you. What struck you about the way they taught or mentored you? What values did they pass to you that were important for your development as pastor/teacher-mentor? How do these “teaching values” relate to what you learned about effective teachers and teaching in lectures and readings (include direct referenced quotations from Tye, Palmer, articles discussed)?

Length: 7-8 pages, single-spaced

Due date: Apr. 10

Evaluation criteria: clear description of your development and growth as disciple and as pastor/teacher-mentor, with good engagement with Morgan, Tye, Palmer and other educational theorists encountered in lectures (include direct referenced quotations).

D. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services. Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

E. SUMMARY OF ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

Evaluation is based upon the completion of the following assignments:

Discussion forums: Individual posts & responses (5 X 6 = 30 %) Group conclusion (1 X 5 %)	35 %
Reflection papers Tye and Palmer (2 X 15 %)	30 %
Major Project	35 %
Total Grade	100 %

F. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

All assignments are to be submitted via Moodle by 11:55PM on the due dates. Late assignments will be penalized, with the reduction of 1 mark for each day late, inclusive of Saturdays and Sundays. Late work will be graded but will not receive any comments from the instructor. Your major project will adopt the Turabian or APA style (footnotes preferred).

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism.

Tyndale University takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Students are encouraged to consult Writing Services. Citation and other tip sheets.

For proper citation style, consult the Chicago-Style Quick Guide (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.44 to 10.48 and 14.238 to 14.241.

The APA Style Guide is a helpful web site for all questions regarding APA style.

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and may require approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Dean's Office (aa@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.

G. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student's learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.
