I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course is designed to increase one’s personal and professional awareness about the topic of human sexuality. The experience of human sexuality from the biological, theological, personal and relational perspectives is considered. Attention is given to developing skills in sexual assessment and constructing the sexual genogram, understanding common sexual concerns and a therapeutic response. Understanding the interpersonal dynamics of sexuality within the helping relationship itself is also discussed. Students will be encouraged to explore their own sexual history and how it affects their ability to form therapeutic relationships.

Recommended Pre-requisite: COUN 0574 or equivalent

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES
At the end of the course, students should be able to:

1. Acquire theologically informed and scientifically accurate knowledge of human sexuality.
2. Explore one’s own experiences and values with respect to one’s own sexuality.
3. Become better equipped to minister to those who are experiencing difficulty resolving issues with respect to their sexuality.

B. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING:

Class attendance and participation (10% of Final Grade): Each session will involve some lecture material plus class participation in the form of small group discussion, role-plays, and skill development exercises.

Group presentation (35% of Final Grade): Each student will be a part of a group that will make a one-hour presentation to the class. Topics will be selected by the group (upon approval of the instructor).

Sexual Autobiography (15% of Final Grade): Each student will be required to write a sexual autobiography (of not more than 6 pages). This paper will reflect upon sexual development, attitudes, morals and formative sexual experience from their family of origin and the legacy that these have had in the student’s current sexuality. This assignment will be graded solely on a "pass/fail" basis with respect to the insight shown. This assignment will be due by February 3, 2016 at 8:15 am.

Essay (40% of Final Grade): Each student will write an essay (of not more than 10 pages, excluding title page and bibliography) on a topic related to sexuality and the human relationship. The essay will include an outline of the relevant issues from a theological, biological and relational context. Topics will be chosen in consultation with the instructor and should relate to a practical area of ministry. This assignment will be due by March 2, 2016 at 8:15 am.

C. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

Deadlines
The deadlines established for the assignments are set so that careful thought can be given to the merits of each submission and final grades can be submitted in a timely manner. Papers handed in late will receive a one percent deduction per day. With the exception of “extreme and extenuating circumstances”, no papers will be accepted two weeks after the due date.

If there are some unusual circumstances, please complete the REQUEST FOR EXTENSION DUE TO EXTREME CIRCUMSTANCES form found at the end of this syllabus, specifying the nature of these circumstances and submit it to me directly by the due date for that assignment. All assignments must be completed and submitted in order to receive a credit in this course.

Academic Integrity
Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism. Tyndale University College & Seminary takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students should consult the current Academic Calendar for academic polices on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System. The Academic Calendar is posted online. An excerpt is attached with this syllabus for easy reference.

E. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student’s learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed.
