The mission of Tyndale Seminary is to provide Christ-centered graduate theological education for leaders in the church and society whose lives are marked by intellectual maturity, spiritual vigor and moral integrity, and whose witness will faithfully engage culture with the Gospel.

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Preparing missional leaders in the postmodern world requires serious examination of the ideologies and cultural milieu of contemporary society and postmodernism. This course examines the main features of the postmodern culture, the meaning of faithfulness to the gospel, the good news of God’s salvation, and the nature and mission of the Church. Church’s witness and service to the world is studied and presented not as one of the functions of the church but as its essential nature. Missionary congregations are perceived as hermeneutic of the gospel and models of Kingdom communities. Missional leadership takes seriously the calling of all God’s people to minister in every sphere of life as faithful witnesses to the gospel of salvation.
II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

A. Apply an in-depth biblical-theological interpretation of the Gospel.
B. Examine theologically the relationship between the Gospel, the Kingdom of God and the Church.
C. Demonstrate the nature and mission of the people of God as a sign, instrument and foretaste of the Kingdom of God.
D. Analyze how culture shapes our understanding of Gospel, Church and ministry.
E. Formulate categories and concepts for cultural-social analysis of specific ministry context.
F. Identify major dynamics of Canadian culture, including an exploration of the meaning and implications of late/post-modernity for the church’s witness and service.
G. Evaluate how the Gospel and the Church can address a multiethnic, pluralistic culture, using Toronto as a case study.
H. Integrate theological insights with cultural-social analysis in developing a theology to inform the Church’s response to its local context.

III. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. REQUIRED TEXTS

4. Selected Articles to be posted at the course web page or accessed through the internet.

B. RECOMMENDED READING AND TOOLS

Tyndale recommends www.stepbible.org – a free and reputable online resource developed by Tyndale House (Cambridge, England) – for word searches of original-language texts, as well as for topical searches, interlinear texts, dictionaries, etc. Refer to the library for other online resources for Biblical Studies.

C. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

Careful completion of the assigned readings in advance, in conjunction with reflecting on their relation to the ideas presented in the lectures. It is expected that students will read all of the assigned reading prior to the scheduled lecture of the week.
More information regarding the assignments is posted on the course webpage.

1. Reflection Paper: Due on Friday, October 11, 2019; 25% of final grade.

   1000-word reflection paper on the culture of modernity and its impact on the life and ministry of the church.

2. Discussion Comments: Dates vary; 25% of final grade.

   Attendance in this course is demonstrated by regular log-ins and up-to-date participation in forums.

   Discussion forums are a key aspect of this course. They are your opportunity to relate and reflect on major themes being studied, to share your ideas with your peers, and benefit from the ideas presented by your colleagues in the group. The purpose of this activity is to allow you to experience how our community’s cross cultural and denominational backgrounds can help to broaden your perspective on areas where the gospel needs to challenge us, the church, and the society we live in. The aim is to make this a collaborative learning experience that functions as a prototype of how the church as body of Christ is intended to operate.

3. Integrative Term Paper: Due on Friday, December 6, 2019; 50% of final mark.

   A 3000-word integrative term paper which applies central ideas from the readings and class discussions to your own ministry.

   The integrative paper should:

   - Focus on the main thesis “what is the role of the church in communicating the message of the gospel in the postmodern context of North America.”
   - Draw on course material, including all assigned readings and lectures.
   - Interact with key ideas about the nature of Gospel and its relation to culture.
   - Provide your own personal reflections and constructive suggestions related to specific implications of a missional paradigm for holistic ministry.
   - Suggest possible obstacles or assets in embracing such a paradigm.

D. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services.
Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

F. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

For proper citation style, consult the Chicago-Style Quick Guide (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.44 to 10.48 and 14.238 to 14.241.

Academic Integrity
Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism. Tyndale University College & Seminary takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students are encouraged to consult writing resources.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic polices on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Research Ethics
All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board (REB). Check with the Seminary Office (Room B302; aau@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.

G. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student’s learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.
